WHAT IS THE PAT?

The Practical Assessment Task (PAT) in Computer Applications Technology (CAT) is a research project that provides you with the opportunity to demonstrate your information management skills. You will also be required to demonstrate your ability using the applications that you study during the year to produce quality outputs.

What you will need to complete the PAT

To complete the tasks, you will need:

- An office suite with the following software:
 - Word processing software
 - Spreadsheet software
 - Database software
- HTML editor (Notepad ++) and a web browser (e.g. Internet Explorer)
- Internet access to find data and information
- Access to other sources such as printed media (e.g. magazines, newspapers, brochures, textbooks) or other electronic material (for example e-books, e-articles)
- Access to facilities to convert hard copies to electronic documents, e.g. scanner or digital camera
- Storage media to store and backup your work electronically, e.g. flash drive, rewritable CD/DVD or in the cloud (using OneDrive, Dropbox, etc.)

The PAT is done in three phases as indicated in the table below:

Phase	Outcome	Focus	Maximum Mark
Phase 1	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A suitable folder • A short description of the problem and the task. • A set of quality questions to answer the focus question. • Information about the topic <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ List of relevant sources ○ Selected information evaluated and summarised. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Find and access data and information. • Decide what the focus of your research will be and which applications you would like to share with other learners. 	29
Phase 2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Questionnaire drawn up and completed in a word processing document • Spreadsheet (MS Excel) worksheet • Database (MS Access) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Get information/data about the topic from people (not likely to be found in other sources). • Process data and information (To show the management, application and analysis of data and information.). 	36
Phase 3	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A report to summarise your research. • A website to give information about the researched topics. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Present information and solutions collected in phases 1 and 2. 	75

Table 1: PAT outline

Your teacher will provide you with dates and deadlines for each phase. It will be in your best interest to keep to these deadlines/cut-off dates.

The PAT counts 25% of your final mark for CAT, therefore it is vitally important that you strive to produce work of a high standard. The PAT is a compulsory component of your final CAT mark.

You need to complete the PAT at least 3 weeks before you start your final Grade 11 examinations.

Dishonesty

Since the PAT is an individual project that is part of your final promotion mark, you may NOT:

- Get help from others without acknowledging this help
- Submit work which is not your own
- Lend your PAT work to other learners
- Allow other learners to access or use your own material (this does not mean that you may not lend books to or borrow books from another learner, but you may not plagiarise other learners' research)
- Include work directly copied from books, the Internet or other sources without acknowledgement and recognition
- Submit work typed or word processed by another person

The above actions constitute dishonesty, for which you will be penalised.

Non-compliance

Should you fail to fulfil any Practical Assessment Task requirements, you will be awarded a zero ('0') for the outstanding part or for the entire PAT.

Topic

ONLINE COLLABORATION TOOLS FOR WORKING TOGETHER

The online world can be an empowering place. How do we shape the future of online collaboration so that we can work together ensuring a positive experience for everyone?

ICT has changed the way we learn, travel, work and interact. ICT holds so many opportunities and benefits for working together online, for example, working on a project or assignment or organising an event using online collaboration tools for activities such as:

- Calendar management
- Time tracing
- Document management
- Real time working/creating and editing documents
- Task management
- Contact management
- File sharing
- Communication tools, e.g. web/video conferencing, e-mail, etc.

The focus question that you are required to answer is:

How can online collaboration tools lead to productive teamwork?

Your task is to:

- Decide on a specific project/task and choose TWO to THREE online collaboration tools/activities to focus your investigation on.
- Investigate activities and tools for working collaboratively online when doing assignments, projects or organising events.
- Explain how you would use these tools to work collaboratively online
- Ask/research questions that will assist you with your investigation:
 - What is online collaboration?
 - What are online collaboration tools?
 - What are examples of online collaboration?
 - How are online collaboration tools used?
 - How do online collaboration tools work?
 - What are the advantages/benefits and disadvantages of online collaboration?
 - Why do people collaborate online?
 - What is required for using online collaboration tools?
 - How can I use online collaboration tools to complete an assignment/project/organise an event with a friend or a group?
 - How would the skills that you learn in CAT help you to collaborate online?
- Gather and analyse data relevant to the investigation
- Identify a suitable audience (such as the learners in your class or the school management at your school, etc.) and present your research and findings using a report that would be suitable for use by the specific audience

Consider some of the following areas:

- A description of online collaboration
- A description of the online collaboration activities
- A description of online collaboration tools
- Which aspects of this online collaboration create opportunities for people to work from home?
- What type of work could one do through online collaboration?
- Factors to consider with online collaboration

Possible ideas you could use for your recommendations, solutions or conclusion in your report:

- Online collaboration tools for a specific task, e.g. working on an assignment or organising an event with a friend or group.
- How to go about working together online to complete a specific task, e.g. working on an assignment or organising an event with a friend or group of people.
- How do the results gathered from your questionnaire compare to that of other surveys?
- Lessons learned from online collaboration
- Recommendations for online collaboration

Step by step guidelines to complete the PAT

PHASE 1

1 Create a suitable folder structure

1.1 Create a suitable computerised folder structure in which to save your work. The main folder should consist of subfolders to organise the work to be done in the different phases in an organised manner. Proposed folder structure:

- Surname and Name Gr 11 PAT (Folder)
 - Phase 1 (Folder)
 - Sources saved in a subfolder
 - Report (MS Word)
 - Phase 2 (Folder)
 - Original questionnaire
 - Completed questionnaires saved in a subfolder
 - Spreadsheet (MS Excel) document
 - Database (MS Access) document
 - Report (MS Word) copied from the Phase 1 folder
 - Phase 3 (Folder)
 - Final report (MS Word) copied from the Phase 2 folder
 - Website (HTML)

All documents created and information collected should be saved in suitable folders. Documents and folders should have applicable file/folder names and be arranged in such a way for easy navigation to information stored.

NB: It is your responsibility to ensure that you regularly make backup copies of all your work done!

1.2 Use a file of your choice for any possible hard copies of your PAT. This file needs to be handed in at the end of each phase for evaluation.

Make sure that you include the following in this file:

- Summary of PAT marks and Declaration of Authentication by learner (Appendix A).
- PAT learner working document

- Phase 1

Copies of sources used if you do not have an electronic copy available.

NB: DO NOT PRINT OUT any sources that are electronically available.

- Phase 2

Proof of completed questionnaires if they are not electronically available.

Note: It is advisable to store all documents electronically and not as hard copies.

2 Create a report

Now start the word processing report that will be used as the final product to communicate your findings and conclusions. Don't worry if you are unfamiliar with some of the 'headings'; you are simply putting together the structure at this stage. You will add content (and other headings) to this report document throughout the course of the three phases of the PAT.

Create a word processing report containing the following:

- A cover page
A professional-looking, well-structured, custom-made cover page using appropriate content controls in order to add:
 - Your name and surname
 - The name of your school
 - The subject name and the PAT topic
 - A content control for the abstract
- An automatic table of contents
- Headings
Add the following provisional headings:
 - Table of contents
 - Introduction
 - Task Definition
 - Content
 - Findings
 - Conclusion
 - Bibliography
 - Appendices
- An addendum under the heading Appendices you created in your report with a diagram or a screenshot showing the folder structure, including any subfolders that will be used. Give it a suitable heading such as 'Folder Structure' and paste the diagram or screenshot in this addendum.
- An addendum with the declaration of authenticity that will be used during all the phases.

3 Create a task definition

To show that you understand why you are doing this investigation, you must be able to describe what you will investigate and what you are required to do in your own words. This is the task definition.

Your description should be added under the heading Task Definition.

You must answer the following questions in your task definition.

- What is the current situation?
Provide a clear statement of the problem (current situation)
- What will the focus and the purpose (desired outcome) of my investigation be?
Indicate the focus of your investigation, i.e. give an overview of which of the aspects will be investigated and covered – in other words, the headings you will use and the purpose of the investigation (desired outcome) – why you are doing this investigation
- How will I go about conducting the investigation, considering the PAT requirements?
Specify in broad terms how you will approach the task (study the requirements/steps of the PAT and indicate how you intend to collect the data and information, manipulate it, etc.)
- Who is the information for (target audience)?
Identify the target audience for the final report that will be drafted
- What format will the information be presented in?
List the programs that you will be using for each phase of the PAT.

Your task definition should consist of ±200 words.

4 Ask questions that will guide your investigation

To solve the problem and answer the focus question, you need to ask more questions to help you find appropriate data and information.

- First create a new addendum under the heading Appendices you created in your report. Give it a suitable heading such as 'Questions and Sources Table' and create the following table (also see Addendum A):

NO.	HEADING/ CATEGORY	QUESTION	QUESTION LEVEL (1, 2, 3, 4)	TYPE OF SOURCE	BIBLIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION	QUALITY OF INFORMATION FOUND	SUMMARY OF INFORMATION FOUND
1
10

TIP: It might be useful to place this appendix in landscape format.

NOTE: You will fill in the required information in the various columns in this table as you progress through Phase 1.

- Identify headings related to the investigation (at least THREE) which you can use to organise your questions and information. These headings will be used in Phase 2 and Phase 3.
- Complete your list of research/investigative questions (at least TEN).
- Evaluate the quality of the research/investigative questions. You need a variety of question types that show different levels of thinking, e.g. questions that will
 - ① provide facts (who, when, where, what, how many, etc.) (level 1 questions)
 - ② give direction to the investigation (why, how, etc.) (level 2 questions)
 - ③ support predictions or help with adjustments (what if, if, etc.) (level 3 questions)
 - ④ support judgement or help to evaluate, critique, review or find meaning (would it be better if, what recommendation(s), what would be best, etc.) (level 4 questions)

Note: Collectively, your (minimum of) TEN questions should represent at least THREE of the above-mentioned types/levels of questions for your investigation/research.

5 Identify sources

To solve the problem, you need to find and identify sources of information and gather quality information.

Find sources for the (minimum of) TEN questions you created to enable you to answer these questions by doing the following:

- Identify a source to find the information for each question.
- You must use the Internet (at least TWO different websites) plus at least ONE other source, for example media (printed/electronic) such as newspapers, magazines, brochures, textbook, et cetera, or an expert (e-mail/interview), et cetera.
- Provide bibliographical information for the sources (at least TWO websites and ONE other source) as follows:
 - For each website, record the following information:

WEBSITE SOURCE
Author(s)/Organisation/Publisher	Schmidt, Casey
Name of website and web page	Online Collaboration – How modern teams succeed together
Date created/updated	4 October 2020
Date accessed	2 March 2020
URL	www.example.com/homepage

- For each other source, such as books and magazines, record the following information:

OTHER SOURCE
Author(s)	Cabala, Xolani
Title of source	Working from home
Date published/issued	December 2017
Publisher	Daily Press

- Now add all this information in the appropriate columns in the Questions and Source table you created. Modify the table as needed. You can also add the bibliographical information as sources in the word processing document.
- Once you have identified your sources (or during that process), you need to assess the potential quality of these sources of information in order to gather quality information.
- For each of the THREE minimum sources you identified (at least TWO different websites plus at least ONE other source) you need to briefly evaluate the quality of the information using the following criteria:

CRITERIA	MOTIVATION/EXPLANATION
Authority	The 'validity' or 'credentials' of the publisher or author(s)
Currency	The date on which the material was published or updated
Accuracy	The correspondence of the information with other sources
Objectivity	Any presence of prejudice, bias, skewing of information, et cetera
Coverage	How extensively the material covers the topic

- Now add all this information to the Questions and Sources table you created.

6 Engage with and use information and data

- Gather all other information and data from the sources you identified, as follows:
 - Save a copy (screenshot/copied content) of each website that you intend to use in an appropriate folder.
 - Process/summarise the information to extract appropriate information that is relevant to your information requirements (you will need it to compile the final report in Phase 3).
 - Record/Save the information in the following way:
- Copy the information and paste it in the relevant cells in the last column of the Questions and Sources table you created (the Summary of information found column).

7 Check Phase 1 before you hand in

Your completed PAT Phase 1 will consist of the following:

- A folder with sources you are going to use in your final report in phase 3.
- ONE Word processing document.

IMPORTANT:

NB: Before you submit your Phase 1:

- Check the attached assessment guidelines step-by-step, headings and numbering of Phase 1 document correspond with headings and numbering of assessment tool.
- Ensure that you have completed all the required instructions.
- Correct all mistakes/errors before you hand in your work.
- Ask assistance from your teacher when you are unsure of aspects to be completed.

The teacher should highlight or tick applicable criteria in the second column. The number of ticks in this second column does not always determine the mark obtained in columns 4 to 8. Relate the criteria to the mark, e.g. in item 1, if answers to all 5 questions are evident, then a mark of 4 is awarded.

PHASE 2

Copy the report from Phase 1 to the Phase 2 folder.

1 Create a questionnaire

To collect data and information that you may not find in other sources or to support data or information from other sources, you need to ask people. To do this you will need to compile a questionnaire.

- Use a word document to design your questionnaire using electronic forms, make use of content controls. You may also use Google Forms. (Note: It is easier to use the legacy tools or Google Forms to transfer information electronically to Excel).
- The questions in the questionnaire should help you to gather data/information from people i.e. data/information not likely to be found in other sources, e.g. opinions or preferences.
- Remember that questions with only one answer or questions where people are able to choose an answer from a list are often easier to process.
 - Questionnaires are often easier to interpret when they have headings and clear instructions for users.
 - Group related questions together under appropriate headings.
 - Design the questionnaire to suit the way in which it will be administered, e.g. use content controls/form fields to enable respondents to complete them electronically and for you to easily save the data.
 - Make use of professional formatting.
 - You may add/use your own questions and create a questionnaire with at least FIVE questions, excluding biographical data (e.g. name, gender, age, address) of the respondent. It is important that you include questions that will give you data (numbers, quantities, statistics, etc.) that you will be able to process in a spreadsheet afterwards. (Try to limit the questionnaire to ONE page but you may use TWO pages if you use a Google form)
 - Distribute the questionnaire to at least TWENTY learners in your school to complete.
 - Store the electronic questionnaires after they have been completed in the appropriate Phase 2 folder. Ensure that each questionnaire has an appropriate (different) file name, e.g. questionnaire 1, 2, 3, etc.

2 Create a spreadsheet

- Remember that you need information that can be processed in MS Excel.
- Process and analyse all data (questionnaire data as well as other data, such as costs, etc.) that may require the use of a spreadsheet.
- Import/capture the data in a suitable format and give the spreadsheet an appropriate file name.
- Use suitable formatting to ensure that any reader will be able to easily interpret the results.
 - Use of formatting features such as colour, borders, word wrap and styles.
 - Make sure that column and row headings are formatted differently to other data.
- Use formulae and/or functions to process data and answer data questions posed in Phase 1.
 - Take note of the requirements of the types and complexities of spreadsheet functions and formulas needed as specified in point 7 of the Phase 2 Assessment Instrument.
- Summarise the results that you will use in the report on a separate sheet.
- Create appropriate, meaningful graphs in your spreadsheet application that you will be able to use in your report to substantiate/support other information, claims or arguments.

- You should have a least TWO relevant graphs that will contribute to the solution.
- Insert elements such as titles, labels, gridlines and/or legends.

NOTE: You should be able to use the information obtained from these formulas, functions and graphs as findings and conclusions in your final report.

- Save the spreadsheet in your Phase 2 folder.

3 Create a database

To enable further analysis of data and information you need to capture appropriate, relevant data in a database so that you can create queries and reports to support/substantiate the discussion of the problem or the recommendations/solution. (Do not merely copy your spreadsheet work as a database table. You may, however, use some of the spreadsheet data in your database.)

- Create a database with a meaningful file name and save it in your Phase 2 folder. The information must be relevant to the investigation.
- Create at least ONE table:
 - Give the table a suitable name.
 - Make use of appropriate field names and data types as well as validation techniques to ensure that the data is captured correctly.
 - Capture appropriate data (at least TWENTY records) that could be used to answer or support questions.
- Create at least TWO queries
 - Insert more than one criterion.
 - Make use of sorting and/or display options.
- Take note of the requirements of the types and complexities of functions needed as specified in point 10 of Phase 2 in the Assessment Instrument.

4 Check Phase 2 before you hand in

Your teacher will give you the date on which to submit your Phase 2 work for assessment.

Once you have completed Phase 2 of the project:

- Study the mark allocation – as in the assessment instrument attached.
- Ensure that the documents you want to hand in, are done according to the criteria as set out in the Phase 2 assessment instruction.
- Submit your entire PAT folder to your teacher. The following should be in your Phase 2 folder:
 - Report copied from Phase 1.
 - Original questionnaire.
 - Completed questionnaires.
 - The completed spreadsheet with the analysis of the data and TWO graphs.
 - The completed database with ONE relevant table and TWO (2) queries.

NOTE: All Phase 2 documents should be submitted electronically.

It is advisable to store all documents electronically and not as hard copies.

Example of a Questionnaire

These are only examples of questions that you may use in your questionnaire. Make use of content control elements to create this form. You may select from this list of questions and add your own questions to your questionnaire.

LEARNER NAME: _____

DATE HANDED IN: ___/___/2020

NOTE: This is a criterion-reference tool.

The teacher should highlight or tick applicable criteria in the second column. The number of ticks in this second column does not always determine the mark obtained in columns 4 to 8. Relate the criteria to the mark, e.g. in item 1, if answers to all 5 questions are evident, then a mark of 4 is awarded.

PHASE 3

The purpose of this phase of the PAT is to:

Communicate the knowledge and insight that you have gained as well as the recommendation(s)/solution(s) to the problem. You need to write a summarised report (1000 - 1500 words, not counting the cover page, table of contents, references and graphics) on your investigation and findings.

1 Create a report

Copy your report from Phase 2 with additional information to Phase 3. Apply the word processing skills you have learned to produce a professional document in order to create a report as explained below.

Ensure that the cover page contains the following:

- Your name and surname
- The name of your school
- The subject name
- The PAT topic
- The focus question
- A meaningful abstract/extract – a brief paragraph of 50 – 100 words that summarises your entire report. (An abstract is written after the entire report is finished and covers the major points in your report. It should not be a copy of the task definition.)
- The date (final completion date/date handed in).

- A table of contents (created automatically by making use of references)

Here you must also add other references/tables, such as a table of figures or a table of authorities, etc.

NOTE: Use the headings and questions in Phase 1 as well as the data and information from Phase 2 and the understanding and insight that you have gained through your investigation to complete the report. Your report should consist of approximately 1000 – 1500 words (content only, excluding cover page, table of contents, references and graphics).

- Introduction

Provide background information that tells the reader what the report is about. Clearly state the problem, purpose and the focus of the investigation, i.e. answers the following questions:

- What is the problem?
- What was the purpose of the investigation?
- What was the focus/which aspects did you investigate?

- Content

- Headings from Phase 1 (tables 2 and 3) with relevant, appropriate information under each heading discussing the investigation and findings as well as providing arguments/making claims. All arguments/claims for the questions must be supported by evidence from the investigation and motivated/explained.
- Supporting evidence such as graphs, tables and data, where appropriate.
- Internet sources and graphics must be acknowledged.

- Interpret and integrate information where necessary.
- Provide findings/recommendations that clearly and effectively address the original problem/focus question.
- Check the sequence and flow of the information.
- Provide citations and/or footnotes where appropriate.
- The information you give must be written in your own words.
- Plagiarism is totally unacceptable. You will be heavily penalised if you copy and paste large chunks of text directly from the Internet or any other source.
- Be original and creative.

- Findings

You need to formulate as least TWO appropriate claims, arguments or findings that are appropriate and relevant to the investigation (as guided by your focus question).

All these claims, arguments and findings must be:

- Supported by relevant, appropriate data/information and a meaningful explanation of how or why the evidence supports these findings
- Drawn from information presented in the report and address the original problem statement/focus in light of the evidence presented

- Conclusion

The conclusion should be drawn using the information and evidence presented and must address the original problem/focus question, appropriately summarised with no new information that you did not investigate.

- References or Bibliography

- Use the reference function of Word and use either the Harvard style.
- You will find this information in phase 1 of your PAT

- Technical aspects

- Use the applicable word editing functions to insert page numbers in the header or footer in the document. Page numbers must not be used on the title page.
- Correct all language and spelling errors.
- Use appropriate, readable fonts, size and number (not more than two).
- Headings should be larger than the content. Make use of styles.
- Appropriate line and paragraph spacing should be used.
- Correct word spacing (only one space between words or after punctuation marks), and correct punctuation (full stop at end of sentence, capital letter at beginning of sentence).
- No spelling mistakes.
- Consistent formatting throughout.
- Make sure you make use of the following:
 - Automatic table of contents
 - Automatic table of figures
 - Hyperlinks/bookmarks
 - Automatic bibliography
 - Citations and captions

2 Create a website

To be able to share the knowledge and insight you have gained with a broader audience you need to create a website:

- Create a website with at least a home page and ONE link to another web page. Save it in your Phase 3 folder making use of meaningful/appropriate file names.
- Your website should have at least the following:
 - A title
 - An introduction
 - A functional navigation system
 - Good quality and factually correct information about the topic/your investigation. The information should be well-structured using appropriate web design principles and techniques such as headings, paragraphs, lists, horizontal lines, etc.
 - Hyperlink to other good, quality information where appropriate
- Ensure that your website is well laid out, readable and has a consistent appearance. It should be easy to skim/scan the website and to find important information.
- Different elements/parts of the pages must be clearly distinguishable.
- Graphics/images should be relevant to the topic or purpose of the site, enhance understanding, display correctly and be of a high quality. Graphs must be appropriately sized and cropped. A descriptive ALT tag must be present, ensuring accessibility for disabled users.
- Use good 'standard' English and ensure there are no spelling and/or grammar mistakes.
- Acknowledge information and graphics used from other sources appropriately.

Take note of the requirements needed as specified in Phase 3 in the Assessment Instrument.

3 Check Phase 3 before you hand in

Your teacher will give you the date on which to submit your Phase 3 work for assessment.

Once you have completed this part of the project:

- Study the attached assessment guidelines for Phase 3. Ensure that all submitted documents corresponds with the required criteria.
- Submit your entire PAT folder to your teacher—make sure that the completed questionnaires, electronic copies of sources, web pages used as sources, report documents from Phase 1 and Phase2, spreadsheet, database, report and website are saved correctly.
- Ensure that you have completed the Final Declaration of Authenticity at the end of the rubric as part of your report.
- Hand in the file containing any hard copy evidence you have collected and that has not been converted to electronic format.

Note: All Phase 3 documents may be submitted electronically.

LEARNER NAME: _____

DATE HANDED IN: ___/___/2020

NOTE: This is a criterion-reference tool.

The teacher should highlight or tick applicable criteria in the second column. The number of ticks in this second column does not always determine the mark obtained in columns 4 to 8. Relate the criteria to the mark, e.g. in item 1, if answers to all 3 questions are evident, then a mark of 4 is awarded.
